

Poetry Reading

at

ERETZ KOSHER

692 Columbus Avenue, at 94 St.
Monday, February 22, 2010, 7:30 pm

Tea and Cake Available

Thoughts of Being

Monarch
A Poem

DANIEL POLSKY, M.D., O.B.M.
(1935 - 2008)

Physician, Poet, Father, Outdoor Enthusiast

A Collection of Poems on the Holocaust, Relationships,
Introspection, and Other Themes.

Thoughts of Being

Daniel Polsky, M.D., o.b.m.

Sensitive, empathic poems and essays on the Holocaust, relationships, introspection and other themes that you will find enjoyable, provocative and memorable collected by the family of a Bronx writer who became a physician. After Dan's death from prostate cancer, his poems were collected by his family and published in November. The 64 poems include:

My Little One speaks of his hold(ing) the heavens in my embrace.

Daybreak relates to his Viet Nam War experience.

Apple Pie is about a friend who drank too much.

Teenager is ambivalent about outgrowing its awkward state sooner.

Daniel relates to Daniel Perl and humanity.

Oh Mom and Yizkor relate to the Holocaust.

Monarch contemplates the mystery of a butterfly.